

Literacy

We will be reading traditional stories including 'The Gingerbread Man' and learning to recite and act out the story.

We will be reading the stories -'Flapjack and Waddle' and 'Poles Apart'. We will also be reading non fiction books about the Poles and Polar animals.

We will continue learning how to write clear sentences with capital letters and full stops.

We will practice our handwriting using leading lines.

Numeracy Counting to 100 forwards and backwards.

Reading and writing number words and figures to 20.

Number bonds to 20 or 10

Addition and subtraction of one and two digit numbers.

Problem solving and puzzle activities.

To identify symmetrical shapes and to continue patterns.

To identify halves and quarters.

Science -Science investigations with ice and sledges

To identify different materials and their uses. To investigate the properties of different materials.

Geography/History

We will find out about the North Pole and South Pole, where are they?

What is it like there? What animals and plants live there? How is it different to where we live?

Who explored the North Pole? Why did they

Spring 1

Polar Explorers

Class 1

Art/DT

Colour mixing cool pictures

Winter paintings and collage

Sewing

RE To learn about what makes them special and who is special to them.

To understand that people have different beliefs and customs and that they can celebrate in different ways.

To listen, respond and retell to Christian and Islamic stories.

ICTe- safety at home and school.

Using technology safely.

Simple programming.

ICT pictures

PSHE

Keeping myself healthy, medicines.

Being a good friend.

Music

Chanting rhymes and songs

P.E

Multi Skills – movement and parachute games.

Dance and movement activities.